

Kerry King, Toxic

Sanity implies
That there's intelligence
All I ever find
Is pure incompetence
Laws are washed away
Society will bleed
Scorned and left to die
And now the mutant's feed

Too many people
Spend too much time
Forcing their opinions
On other people's lives

Toxic rhetoric
Toxic government
Toxic politics
Toxic hypocrites

To your face they lie
Unleash and overthrow
Legal rights denied
And fall like dominoes
Hide behind the cloak
To change your way of life
Liberty revoked
A target for all time

Too many people
Spend too much time
Forcing their opinion
On other people's lives

Toxic rhetoric
Toxic government
Toxic politics
Toxic hypocrites

Toxic rhetoric
Toxic government
Toxic politics
Toxic hypocrites

Biased policy
Aborting history
Exploding at the chance
With rabid arrogance

Words now weaponized
With violence criticize
Ignore the majority
And force feed insanity

Unleash hatred's wrath
And social aftermath
You penance will be do
It's time for my own fucking coup

Too many people
Spend too much time
Forcing their opinion
On other people's lives

Toxic rhetoric

Toxic government
Toxic politics
Toxic hypocrites
