

Kevin Ayers, Diminished But Not Finished

Hey Babe you're making my wheels start turning
Loving but I'm still learning to
Hey babe nothing to say but words
And I could just play with words all day
Never knew how to write a love song
Always seemed to get the words wrong
Always trying to say what can't be said

Hey Babe you're making my wheels start turning
Loving but I'm still learning to
Never knew how to write a love song
Always seemed to get the words wrong
Always trying to say what can't be said
Hey Babe I've nothing to say but words
And I could just play with words all day
