

Kevin Devine, If We Meet Today

Do you know how ridiculous you sound
When you say you might be in love with me
Not cause I want you to
Not cause I want you to
I've got to stop coming around here
You never seem to know what's best for me
At least not when I want you to
Not when I want you to
Not when I want you to
And if we meet today
Promise that you'll stay awake
Long enough to hear me say let's go to sleep
Let's go to sleep
And do you know how scared I am
Of the ball I'm dropping out
And you're breaking through to me
Not cause I want you to
Not cause I want you to
You're breaking through to me
Not cause I want you to
