

Kevin Fowler, Tequila In Tijuana

I can't even lie
I won't even try to tell you that I'm the perfect man cuz in the past I've been known to travel unknown
when I go out with my friends but lately all this drinkin has just been bringin me down been lookin for salvation but all I've found is all the tequila in tijuana
won't help me feel any stronger
i know it won't help
but i'm gunna try
goin down to mexico and drink and drive here i go
well i aint gone a day
since you'v gone away without drinkin a few and blamin it on you couldn't lie to myself
or to anyone else
and say that I'm doin fine another shot of Crinch can't get you off my mind is there a message in this bottle that i can't find cuz
goin down to mexico and drinkin and drive
it's bringin me down
got me feelin like
i'm gunna die
yeah it's bringin me down
oh it's bringin me down
