

Kevin Gates, Push It

my biggest problem in life was over coming myself but once I defeated myself the only thing left was peace nigga be talking like rthis shit easy or something yeh heard me nah nigga I make this shit look easy yeah heard me!

see, sometimes people think they can be you better than you could be you every time they take ya down I;ma build you the fuck back up, nigga took a lof of losses

had to bounce back
she got ass love it wahren it bounce back came back strong
applying pressure
watch a nigga bounce back

push it
up all in his face and he think that I am pushing like what we got talk about ain't to talk about
I put the calls on these niggas
I call 'em out

major mistake if you thinking I am pussy
I am in his face and he think that I am pushing major mistake if you thinking I am pussy
