

Kevin Seconds, Extra Something

Tracy, I was your man did everything to make you understand and now there's no more you and me.
Tracy

Standing in the shadows
Evil thoughts inside your head
It took an extra something
To keep you from feeling so bad but when you rose above it
And everything was sinking in
You had me thinking thoughts
That I never thought I'd think

Spaced out little dreamer
Float along and disappear
You made me swallow something
My pride or was it my fear?
Stumbled into my room
Your poured yourself into my heart
I thought I saw it all
Until you tore it all apart
