

Kevin Tellie, Biblo Baggins

I'm here living in your nightmare's sweetest dreams
Living in your thunderstorm's sunny days
Hell, it's raining again
Yeah, it's raining again
Every time a rain drop falls I wash away
Up to your shore day after day

Come on, give me a piece of that action
Come on, give me a piece of that speed
Give me a piece of your baby
Cause your all I need

I keep me sane
You keep me insane
If I stay the same
You'll change my name
And it's over
I try and read your heart
You read my brain
I keep me sane
You keep me insane

Come on, give me a piece of that action
Come on, give me a piece of that speed
Give me a piece of your baby
Cause your all I need

We have nothing in common
Everybody runs when it rains
I stay inside away from the dry
But you, you run when it rains

Come on, give me a piece of that action
Come on, give me a piece of that speed
Give me a piece of your baby
Cause your all I need

Nothing is mine
Everything's fine
I most likely wont drop by tonight
