

Khalid, Don't Pretend

I feel like I'm losing you no I never had you
I feel like there's nothing for me here but still I try
losing my finger in your line I'm holding back I might just lose my mind keeping my phone alive

hopin' that you call this time god I heard your name you know I hear things sometimes come alive /4x
show me don't pretend /3x

keepinn' you on my radar lately is so damn cold you used to hold me down I settle remember your voice how you tal so sof in the morning you're the only one I;mmourning

god I heard your name
