

Khalid, Vertigo

are we better off believing what the ignorance suggest I wish living life was easy but mine has been a mess they say it comes with the seasons but the seasons come and go I go blurry when I'm thinking is it me or vertigo?

criticized, who am I to give up?
and breathing was the reason to live sympathize, who am I to give up putting on my favorite record?

are we alive?
or are we dreaming?
after the ride
are you living?
or are we dreaming?
are you living?

I've been better, often broken I've been battered up and beat I wish I was more outspoken but these words are out of reach thought I loved you in the moment I was happy, I was not I've been learning, I've been growing but the worst is yet to come criticized, who am I to give up?

and breathing was the reason to live
sympathize, who am I to give up

or are we dreaming?
are you living?
or are we dreaming?
are you living?

eyes closed, eyes closed
I've been falling with my
I've been falling with my
