

Khalid, Voicemail (feat. Kiana Ledé)

When there's someone you like
Not someone you love
Say you needed the time
And I don't wanna fuss
Got a lot on your mind
And I'm not one to trust

Are we playing a game?
Am I down on my luck?
'Cause this shit's not the same
We don't even touch
Should I stay in my lane?
I don't wanna bug you

So, when you're laying in your bed
Playing my songs
Can we share the thoughts that you keep? (That you keep from me)
Oh, you're running through my head
Leading me on
Honestly, I wouldn't change a thing

I won't be such a drag
You don't gotta worry 'bout that
I give you your space if you need it
Say it to my face if you mean it
You make me so mad
Why you gotta do me like that?
Don't leave me waiting for no reason
Say it to my face if you mean it

Don't leave me waiting, waiting, waiting
Don't leave me waiting, waiting, waiting
Don't leave me waiting, waiting, waiting
Don't leave me waiting, waiting, waiting

Why when I pull your way you start to let go?
I open up and you throw it out the window
I'd do anything for you to say
All we can do is try but you're so in denial
Been working at this for a long, long time
It's feeling stagnant, we don't even fuck
And I just stay in my lane 'cause I don't wanna bug you

So, when you're laying in your bed
Playing my songs
Can we share the thoughts that you keep? (That you keep from me)
Oh, you're running through my head
Leading me on
Honestly, I wouldn't change a thing (No, I wouldn't change a thing)

I won't be such a drag (Yeah)
You don't gotta worry 'bout that
I give you your space if you need it
Say it to my face if you mean it
You make me so mad
Why you gotta do me like that?
Don't leave me waiting for no reason
Say it to my face if you mean it

Don't leave me waiting, waiting, waiting
Don't leave me waiting, waiting, waiting
Don't leave me waiting, waiting, waiting
Don't leave me waiting, waiting, waiting
