

Khan, Space Shanty

I need you and you need me
Also I need to be free
Free as the word free can mean
To stand secure outside this dream
Starstruck moonman looks so blind
You're still a slave within your mind
All this time you have not guessed
Where you are bound
Which way you're heading
How you can stop feeling confused

Follow the star that is moving so slowly
Flow in its river of light and you'll see
That you have found
What you've been searching
Come back and help us to regain
