

Khoiba, Not As It Seems

Deep inside i've lost my way
Deeply i feel degraded
Overaten, cold and used
I haven't been so far excused

It's too late
Foreign dreams
Have deformed me almost
It's too late
Foreign dreams
Have deformed too much
It seems, it's not enough for your dreams again
And it seems, it's not enough for your dreams again

Hard to say: "Oh i will turn it back"
But i am about to realize it
And found my latest track
I wanna meet the needs again
And hear the beats
To open my dusty sheets
Within my lonely feels

But it's too late...
