

Khoiba, Spikey/The Tone

Hunter needs my arms to surround you
Can't make me understand two answers
I'm lost but still I try to make it easy
The next step inside my head would say so
The next step inside my head
The next step inside my head

I let you see the spark and life is that easy
You light me up to find your next goals
I wonder when your arms will surround me
Can't make me understand two answers

No, I'm only fate
To let us differentiate
And I need more time
To help us

Closing one gate to you
I'm stopped with a black stone
One day I'll shut them all

I wanna tell you to free that stone
I've got to tell you to decide your tone
And learn that this tone should be your next guide
Decide your tone
Decide your tone
Decide your tone
Decide your tone
Decide your tone
Decide your tone
Decide your tone

Decide your
In the city of noise
You'll be just a tone
That's meant to grow
Decide your tone

Tone, tone
No I'm in your ???
