

Kiana Ledé, Irresponsible

I dove in blind, took a chance on us
Gave my trust
So in love
And it's difficult for me to open up
You were someone
I thought was careful with me

Instead you left me in pieces
If this ain't where you wanted to be
You should've at least
Manned up & just let me be, oh

So irresponsible
Making me fall, fall head first for you
You let me set my feelings on the loose
Knowing deep down you wouldn't follow through
Oh so irresponsible
Taking my heart, splitting it in two
You could've left me alone but it's cool
Baby, there's some shit that you just don't do

Hope you're proud
You got blood on your hands
The one I relied on Counted on
Dropped the ball
No remorse
Only worried bout yourself
Could've played someone else, you choose me

Of course I feel some way, yeah
And if you weren't ready
Maybe you should've at least
Stayed your ass out on them streets, you're

So irresponsible
Making me fall, fall head first for you
You let me set my feelings on the loose
Knowing deep down you wouldn't follow through
Oh so irresponsible
Taking my heart, splitting it in two
You could've left me alone but it's cool
Baby, there's some shit that you just don't do

Maybe oh maybe that's my bad
Giving you such an impossible task
Knowing that you couldn't handle that, that, that, I
Only asked you to keep it 100 babe
Never asked for much, just communicate
Only asked please don't do me damage & that you can't even manage oh you're

So irresponsible
Making me fall, fall head first for you
You let me set my feelings on the loose
Knowing deep down you wouldn't follow through
Oh so irresponsible
Taking my heart, splitting it in two
You could've left me alone but it's cool
Baby, there's some shit that you just don't do
