

Kicked In The Head, In Trouble Again

A white picket fence has been painted black
The kids know the parents are on the attack
So they try and shed some light on an all out war
But mom and dad are too busy
Trying to settle the score
Something's wrong in paradise
Who do you think will pay the price?
A one-way ticket to divorce land
And things aren't going as you had planned

Watch out...

Dumb and drunk with a bottle for a soul
You've gone nuts 'cause you're out of control
Forgot the trouble in-between
'Cause you're too consumed with your riot scene
Something's wrong in paradise
Who do you think will pay the price?
A one-way ticket to divorce land
And things aren't going as you had planned

Watch out...

AGAIN! AGAIN! I'M IN TROUBLE AGAIN
AGAIN! AGAIN! I'M IN!
Trouble again...

A nurse pinpointed the virus
A doc diagnosed the disease
Somehow this crazy circumstance
It's got me down on my knees

AGAIN! AGAIN! I'M IN TROUBLE AGAIN
AGAIN! AGAIN! I'M IN!
Trouble again...
