

Kicked In The Head, Tidal Wave

Multiple choice

Pick and choose

Who do you think will win?

'Cause someone's got to lose

Will you draw the line?

Will you pass the test?

Now that you're trapped inside

Of this hectic mess!

This life's tidal wave

It's pushing me to the edge

Will I get through this mess before I'm dead?

Survive an undertow that's turning me inside out

My sphincter's squeezing, my hands are freezing

And my stomach's freaking out!

MY HEAD! It's split in two

MY HEAD! What will I do?

MY HEAD! Can I buy some time?

MY HEAD! I think I lost my mind

Damn my to-do list is way too long

I've barely got time to sing this song

Day by day - one by one

I keep working my ass off 'till the day is done

This life's tidal wave

It's pushing me to the edge

Will I get through this mess before I'm dead?

Survive an undertow that's turning me inside out

My sphincter's squeezing, my hands are freezing

And my stomach's freaking out!

MY HEAD! It's split in two

MY HEAD! What will I do?

MY HEAD! Can I buy some time?

MY HEAD! I think I lost my mind

I've got this funny feeling

Something's just not right

Twisting and turning in my bed all night

This stress has got me down

This stress has got me out

This stress has got me evaluating

What I'm all about

Lost out at sea

Where no one can find me

Swimming amongst a coral reef in my own lunacy

Numb to a cold that doesn't even hurt

The only pain that I can feel

Is way down in my gut!

MY HEAD! It's split in two

MY HEAD! What will I do?

MY HEAD! Can I buy some time?

MY HEAD! I think I lost my mind
