

Kid Courageous, No Place Like Home

there's a photograph i take with me everywhere i go of sydney streets and family i just realized there's no place like home going away wish i could say there's no place like home i don't no what to do i don't no what to say holding back to hold back maybe something never change

walking down my yellow brick road
