

Kid Courageous, One In A Million

If you listen closely to the sound of silence
You can hear the music playing from last night
So if I take a chance on you
And fall flat on my face, at least I know I tried

I need, need, need a bit of something to get in front
Then get, get, get a lot of nothing to say I won
I need, need, need a bit of something
to get in front
Then get, get, get a lot of nothing
to say I won

Amuse me how well you fake that smile
Was almost as convincing as mine Late night empty phone call proved to be The nail in the coffin of lost opportunity

I'd of paid good money to see your face as you walked away
You're one in a million
I never thought that I would see the day
That I'd care so much
You're one in a million
Who am I kidding
