

Kids In Glass Houses, Yeah Yeah Yeah

Pull no punches now we gotta get up and get up and get up again
pull no punches now we gotta get up and get up and get up again one more giving up on you one more i just can't ignore one more giving up one you one more
pull no punches now we gotta get up and get up and get up again no excuses now we gotta get up and get up and get up again take one last good look you fool i'm leaving take one good breath just stay cool does this pale face look it all im grieving take back the taste you adore retreat retreat, this is a different kind of love i don't know that you should get away with this don't know that you should get away with this
