

Kids In The Way, One And Only

K...

Just another broken heart
She let it die and fall apart
I think I finally figured out
It's all a waste of time believing
I need someone

*Chorus*

Won't you be one and only
Love songs don't come true
Won't you be my one and only
This song was made for you

I hate losing sleep
Memories are poisoning my brain
I wish it were easier to see
That she's not the reason for the beating
Of my heart

*Chorus*

I'm sick of good intentions
Things not mentioned
You're asking me to stay
But pushing yourself away
Screaming in your ear
I'm sorry she's not here
What else can I say?
Give me the time of day
I thought of you last night
Sorry I didn't write
Why can't we be friends
That's how the story ends

*Chorus*
