Kids In The Way, Sugar

She's a high fashion love assassin Taking names and playing games is her passion But her perfect world started coming apart The day I broke her cold heart

Now she's hungry for the blood of any boy And she'll get it 'cause she gets what she wants She's a devil in black stilettos Don't cross her, she's a fully loaded debutante

Everybody run, everybody run She looks so sweet when she's having fun Everybody run, everybody The homecoming queen has got a gun

She's a killer made of spice and sugar Hand grenades for promenades better suit her But her perfect world started coming apart The day I broke her cold heart

Now her enemy is our society She'll suck you in, then she'll blow you away She's a devil in black stilettos Don't raise your glass, her cocktail's spiked with glycerin

Everybody run, everybody run She looks so sweet when she's having fun Everybody run, everybody The homecoming queen has got a gun

It's a love-hate masquerade And she's got you in her sights A love-hate masquerade And she's got you in her sights

She's got a gun

Everybody run, everybody run She looks so sweet when she's having fun Everybody run, everybody The homecoming queen has got a gun
