

Kieran Goss, Moments In Time

Moving so well
Parallel
But inevitably we Hesitate
And separate
Cant you see what's meant to be

Trying to find
Common mind
But eventually we
Deviate
But surely fate
Is gonna bring our destiny
You will see

There are moments in time
When our hearts realign
And I pray for the day

Longing to see
A guarantee
So then consequently we Complicate
Cant relate
To the path of mystery
Where we see

So celebrate
While you wait
Cause its slowly turning 'round
Have you found
