

Kiesza, Dancing and Crying

Some will say you can never have
What they call Magic
Some will say you can never go
Where they call Heaven
Baby where you're gonna go
You never could imagine
You never could imagine
Get ready for it

Sometimes you just have to go
Where nobody can go
Lose yourself lose control
When you get there you'll just know it
You'll just know

You can talk with you body
You can dance with your soul
I can feel that you're crying
That's the start of the show
Let your feelings drop down low
Then come back to the front row
It is time that we prepared
For where we're about to go

Tonight it's getting emotional
And when lose your shell
It's ok to lose control
We will all get out alive
But we'll never be the same
What you're losing you'll be finding
Cuz we're dancing and we're crying

You can free your mind and
Tonight we're dancing and we're crying

Some will say you can never have
What they call Magic
Some will say you can never go
Where they call Heaven
Baby where you're gonna go
You never could imagine
You never could imagine

Go on and flow off the radar
No operator
We are ascending
Drip, sweat and move
Let it move
Let it move
Let it move
And let it go-o-o- o
Like a domino-o-o-o
Come on baby
Dance what you know

Sometimes you just have to go
Where nobody will go

You can free your mind and
Tonight we're dancing and we're crying

Some will say you can never have

Hearts are colliding
Are we living are we dying
You can free your mind and
Tonight we're dancing
We're dancing and we're crying
