

Kik Tracee, Romeo Blues

(Lyrics: Stephen Shareaux, Rob Grad)

Music: Gregory Hex, Rob Grad)

Slow motion reply of a 9 to 5

Visual infatuation, just caught my eye

The last six shooters, shooters been running dry

Desperation, telling lies

That nasty little girl

I want to get into her world, I'm on the outside

I'm on the outside looking in

I can't believe what's happening on the inside

Romeo

Same time 9 to 5 Romeo takes another bite outta life

Romeo

Disguised eyes they meet, Juliet walks down a different street

Move a little closer, I got something you should know

Look into my eyes do you see another Romeo

She gets to looking like a prisoner

Prisoner of the streets she walks

I never thought I'd be the victim

The victim, victim of the Romeo blues

Where for art thou now Romeo

You just caught my eye

Hey you, why don't you move a little bit closer

Tell me what you see

Do you see another Romeo

I ain't gonna be your Romeo
