

Kik Tracee, You're So Strange

(Lyrics: Stephen Shareaux

Music: Rob Grad, Dana Strum)

How can I survive without you in me

It hurts to let you go, I've been watching the time

I'm here waiting, fading

You and I we always had the right time together

It's crazy how we socialized

But now you've gone and kissed yourself goodbye

Oh, why

[CHORUS]

'Cause you, you're so strange

You're so strange

Sometimes I try to forget all those things that we said

But baby, I'm so tired

And you girl, you're so strange

All I think about is making music

And all she thinks about is making music to me

I'm her melody

But things keep changing key

You and I we always sang the right song together

It's crazy how we harmonized

But now you've gone and kissed yourself goodbye

Oh, why

[CHORUS]

Look out, it's so heavy

There's this feeling we get

When all those things in our head

Get left inside

[CHORUS]

Oh baby, you're so strange
