

Kiley Dean, As Days Gone By

sunshine, get comfortable
'cause i'm feeling blue today i'm kind of glad to see the rain i'm fine here all alone but i can't enjoy it with you
'cause i'm really missing you

as these days go by
i want you more
thinking of the way
you were before
every time i try
it seems so hard
there's no way to mend a broken heart somedays i play the part of a woman who don't need a dude but God knows that ain't the truth i can't deny his heart but i don't know what else to do

it seems so hard

happiness seems like it's so far
'cause you don't love me how will i ever mend my heart?

as these days go by i want you more thinking of the way you were before every time i try it seems so hard

thinking of the way you were before
there's no way to mend a broken heart
