

Kill Hannah, Hit The Planes Down

On that cowboy in the sky
With all the freedom of a madman
Was that shining carnival
Carousel that took me under
In one fell blow

Hit the planes down
Tear the sky out
Hit the planes down
In one fell blow

/--Someone needs to figure out this line---/
Attached by hinges to the ceiling
Where the cheek bone shadows fall
Upon a face it took me under
My fuse sparks glow

Hit the planes down
Tear the sky out
Hit the planes down
In one fell blow
