

Kill Hannah, Lightbulbs

oh my love this time, this time we've talked and i've told them that they have no spines so no more like this time again because we float ----- i'm out of it
all the lightbulbs glow
we don't plan on bruning out we don't plan... on burning out if they're spinning around they'll get all tangled in what we go through so they're spinning around well at least you're not standing still
maybe if you colored yourselves in fire
color yourselves in fire
color yourselves in fire
