

Kill Hannah, Scream

I saw the clouds forming tornadoes in the sky
The winter winds blew on lake Michigan that night
I carved your name into my arm
So I would remember you
Sometimes it hurts so bad I don't want to know what to say
Enacting Sybil vane in some tragic way
So afraid that I can't ever explain
So now I
Scream
And hope it's a dream
It's hard just to breathe
When you say goodbye
I wanna sleep but there are nightmares when I try
The birds are circling
I know the reasons why
Maybe a sad song some time
Will make you remember me
Somehow I feel that it's my destiny to fall
Get dried and hung upon a gallery wall
Holding on by just a thread to my heart
So no I
And hope it's a dream
It's hard just to breathe
When we say goodbye
Scream
It's not what it seems
I still cant believe
That we said goodbye
