

Kill the Alarm, Shout It Out Loud

Words, could never tell you
Would it change a thing if I'd tried
I'm haunted
By your pictures
I've gone straight from satisfied
To barely getting by
If I was capable, I'd go directly to your heart
I'd tell you now what I knew then
I should've told you from the start
If you were on a mountain
And I was drifting on a river
I would shout it out loud
I would shout it out loud
I would shout it out loud
For you
Time was ours to watch
Somewhere along the way we got forgot
All the promises
Fade to memories
But I'll remember you
Will you remember me?
Looking back
I see it now
Through this rearview in my dreams
But in my dreams I can freeze time
At the moment you were mine
If you were on a mountain
And I was drifting on a river
I would shout it out loud
I would shout it out loud
I would shout it out loud
Same old story to tell
Sad songs say it so well
I can't stand
Here and wait
And watch us fade away
Fade away
If you were on a mountain
And I was drifting on a river
I would shout it out loud
I would shout it out loud
For you
I would shout it out loud
(When will we wake up?)
I would shout it out loud
(When will we wake up?)
(For you)
I would shout it out loud
For you
For you
For you
