

Kill the Alarm, Sit up

Sit up sit up sit up
Im not leaving Im not leaving
I believe I will
Live up live up live up
To what Im singing now
I confess, I confess Ive been held down
Let myself get pushed around
I couldnt figure it out
In a word, lost is where Ive been
In a word
I couldnt wait to get out of it
I couldnt wait to get out of it
I cant wait

Sit up sit up sit up
Im not leaving Im not leaving
I believe I will
Live up live up live up
To what Im singing now
If you try, If you try youll start to see
All the things you want it to be
Ill let you figure it out
Come along, walk with me til dawn
Until the light comes shining on
Youd better get out of our way
I cant wait, i cant wait
Sit up sit up sit up
I'm not leaving I'm not leaving
Til you believe I will
Live up live up live up
To what Im singing now

BR:

Oh, I keep my head straight and move along

Im headed for an upswing
Some may say Ive got it all wrong
Well at least I got something
Another day not a simple life
Countless hours of thinking twice
Im happy to go my own way
I dont care what they all say

Sit up
Just Get up
Live up
Sit up sit up sit up
Just Get up get up get up
Live up live up live up
Get up get up get up
And start living
Sit Up sit up sit up
Were not leaving
Were not leaving
I believe we will
Live up live up live up
To what were singing
To what were singing now
Sit up sit up, sit up sit up
Im not leaving
I believe we will
Live up live up live up
Sit up sit up sit up

And live up live up live up
To what your singing now
Stand up for what your singing about
