

Kill Your Idols, Don't Call Me, I Won't Call You

Don't ask me if you don't have the time
I'm not ok so save your time
I don't mean to over react
But now the favor has to be paid back

Don't want to hear no more boring stories
Don't care about your fears and your worries
Don't really care if you're down in the dumps
You're never there when I'm taking my lumps

Don't want to hear that you've got no rock
Don't wanna hear about the girls you want to fuck
Thought we were friends but I guess we're not
Let's end this now, let the phone calls stop

It's really easy, this is my grievance
Friendship's aren't based on convenience
When I need you you're never there
You never really seem to care

Don't ask me if you don't have the time
I'm not ok so save your time
I don't mean to over react
But now the favor has to be paid back

Don't want to hear no more boring stories
Don't care about your fears and your worries
I don't care if you're down in the dumps
You're never there when I'm taking my lumps

It's really easy, this is my grievance
Friendship's aren't based on convenience
When I need you you're never there
You never really seem to care

Don't call me, I won't call you
So now I guess we're through
See you some other day
With nothing left to say

It's really easy, this is my grievance
Friendship's aren't based on convenience
When I need you you're never there
You never really...
