

Killah Priest, Cross My Heart

[Intro]

[Kid] One two, one two

[KP] No doubt

[Kid] The microphone's on...

[KP] Cross my heart, hope to die, word is bond

[Kid] I've been waiting a long time for this

[KP] Here it go, Killah Priest, COME ON, '97, '98....

HEAR IT SOAR!

[Killah Priest]

It's the Byzantine King, supreme, all kneel kiss the ring into a ilohean, I blow steam from the families of the Macabees smack emcees watch them scream your majesty, make them suffer the capacity of tragedy, hold the crowd down like gravity back the fuck off, stop grabbing me, hands off me, niggas start to bore me I'm getting sleepy, I need some coffee, me and my Wu bandits we carry niggas deep in the canvas, body bandaged, like some mummies you fucking dummies, you can't take nothing from me it's the longest waited, the most anticipated, the album hesitated scream the name out KILLAH PRIEST, I leave the blood spilling in the street I'm from the dark hills of Brownsville, the seven shields throwing windmills across the killing fields, never forget it, tell them rap critics I speak in arithmics, so they can never get it, I'm too scientific lyrics explicit, I roll with thirsty niggas, thieves and killers tigers, gorillas, faces like Godzilla we stomp rappers and smile like a card dealer, the God's iller cross my heart -- hope to die, we multiply, by the hundreds fuckin by the thousands, see me outside the show browsin beatin up your soundman playa haters and players, we give 'em cold stares any last prayers?

[Inspectah Deck]

Yo, yo, concrete techniques, bomb beats and cause casualties my faculty, hold it down like gravity, rapidly threatened like weapons to adolescents, ghetto residence quick to pass since your present, state of the slum kill four, play the drums, face one they're coarse with smiles and snake tongues I'm deep into this, I sometimes gasp for air deadly warfare, hot block, cops and cold stares shots flare like fireworks soar July the 4th weapons get tossed, fugitives slide North my force is combined, new world, 2009 digital, criminals, we make mills in cyber-crime
It's all planned ahead, two times
I see the signs to a great mind
The heaviest chain could not bind

[Chorus: Killah Priest]

We stare you eye to eye

We tell the truth no lie

We cross our heart and hope to die.. hope to die..

[GZA]

High ranked officials and armed tanks with missiles blood drizzle, simple fact, you slept on the issue that before you started jerkin off joysticks and Sega
I was rocking off 100 watt amps in Cerwin-Vega's True fine tune it, we ship enough units emcees ask, who be those rhyme killers in masks no doubt, difficult task, the last in the square beware, infinite amount of darts is in the air I'm victorious, with no opponents and blast through components, with microphonics watch the whole world live the moment anything anti became approached in this are incapable of speech, remains motionless

[Chorus 2X]

[Outro]

[Kid] Wu-Tang Forever! Peace!

[KP] There you have it, hear it soar

[Kid] Peace!

[KP] Killah Priest, Killah Priest, GZA, GZA, GZA

Inspectah Deck on the set, the GZA, GZA, GZA/Genius Wu..
