Killah Priest, Science Project

[Intro: Killah Priest]
Live my life (4X)
What happened everybody
Every day
Some days we didn't even eat
Way back in the days
This is a story of the ghetto
Bed-Stuy, Brownsville
Flatbush, Fort Greene
Queensbridge, Boogie Down
Yo

[Killah Priest]
Five brothers they were laying in the lobby
And one had a shotty
Greed made them thirsty for money
So he plot with his gat cocked
I need a knot, shit is getting hot
The others said, "What could we do? It's on you"
He stared them down as he passed them the brew
"Hmm, maybe you see my view
Follow me upstairs on the eighth floor and I will show you the door"
"The eighth floor, how is that?"
That's where my cousin, is slinging crack?
Gram, what y'all niggas is puss?
Y'all seem shook, to have niggas ambushed"
One other kid said, "You sound like a savage
Couple of years ago you spoke mathematics
I peeped your ways now you carry automatics
And try to give niggas traffic"
Peace...

[Interlude: Killah Priest]
Fuck y'all niggas
What's up?
Money
Life is a stress
Gotta eat, fuck that

[Killah Priest]
He stepped on the elevator
"I see y'all crab niggas later"
[Do what I gotta do]
"Call your cousin and warm him of the setup
Before the brother gets wet up"
gunshot
[Niggas caught up]
He ran to the payphone
Hoping that nobody stayed home
He tried to dial but niggas started busting
On the corner while them other niggas hustling
He jetted back to his projects
automatic gunfire
He heard the sound of a Tec
automatic gunfire
He heard the sound of a Tec!
("Oh shit!")
He heard the sound of a Tec!
single blast
He heard the sound of a Tec!
automatic gunfire
He heard the sound of a Tec!
automatic gunfire

He heard the sound of a Tec!
He heard the sound of a Tec!
gun blast

[movie sample]
In the beginning we lived as we could Friendless wanderers that we were
We cheated and stole in order to live
We knew heat, hunger and cold
And slept under the stars
Then, as time softened my sorrow
I began to put to use the skills I had learned in the school of life and in my father's house
