Killing Heidi, A Jar Labelled Small

There's no inspiration just a pale transform in the eyes my worst enemy is hiding at my door and where did your wings go? Same place as mine Well, I can't catch her 'cause they're biting at her ankles and our wings are gone forever, have you got 20 cents to buy some more?

I couldn't see i could fall (x4)

By the time you read this I'll be fast asleep and waking all the faces growing in me, haven't been feeling human for a while now little teeth getting thinner and thinner every day. Well everything around me gets bigger and bigger Elevating me it's gone too fast but I fed it 20 cents; it was my call.

'Cause I couldn't see I could fall I couldn't see I could fall (x2) I couldn't see...

My fall, my fall, i couldn't see My fall, Oh i couldn't see My fall...

Is this really what you want?
Is this what you planned?
Take a look inside your head
and open up your hands.
Did you know it would turn out this bad
if you did it this way?

I couldn't see i could fall (x3) I couldn't see...

I couldn't see that I could fall, I couldn't see that i could fall I wouldn't know you'd go, you'd go
