Killing Heidi, Heavensent

Ooh yeah, ooh yeah..
Walking, always over windows
weeping willow wind blows
you are not alone
Watching, for the sign its reading overtime i'm thinking
you are not alone

ooh yeah..

In time, you will find your heavensent. With my head outside the line the sign is reading overtime i'm thinking you're heavensent. You're sent.

Ooh yeah..

Waiting in a patient limbo wanting only to know, this is my way home.
Wading through overflowing reason can't contain the feeling this is my way home

Ooh yeah...

In time, you will find your heavensent. With my head outside the line the sign is reading overtime i'm thinking you're heavensent. oh oh oh..

With my head outside the line the sign is reading overtime and i'm thinking you're heavensent. sent, oh oh oh..

You're heavesent you're heavesent to me you were sent to me. You're heavensent you're heavensent you're heavensent you're heavensent

It was meant to be you're heavensent you're heavensent you're heavensent to me you were sent to me.

With my head outside the line the sign is reading overtime and i'm thinking you're heavensent. sent, oh oh oh..

With my head outside the line the sign is reading overtime and i'm thinking you're heavensent.
