

Kim Mitchell, Dog And A Bone

Let's pretend you are my Cinderella, and I am the hero
We have a castle and ?????
We ride into the sun

Let's pretend I am a big bad sailor
A rolling thunder
Let forget I'm just a pawn shop pirate
And you're a ????? lover

Loving you is never hard
Every day turning up a brand new card
Got my hand in your cookie jar
We're all alone on a desert island throne

Just like a dog and a bone
White on white
You drive me crazy
Just like a dog and a bone
When you take that bite
Just like a dog and a bone
White on white
And the road gets hazy
Just like a dog and a bone
When you take that bite

Let's pretend we're riding rock-n-roll's love train
Through the clouds and the mountains
Laughing all through the nights rain
As we roll past fields of love

Let's pretend that the grass ain't greener
Cause you are the sunshine
Stop the universe changing
Stop finger pointing

Loving you just feels so right
Everything's turning up roses
Got my hand in your cookie jar
We're all alone on a desert island throne

I don't ever wanna leave this place
It just feels like home
I don't ever wanna leave this place
