

Kim Mitchell, Rumour Has It

rumour has it you used to be one
are you really one?

are you really one?

don't give me those silent stares now i'm your brave one
i'll be brave

rumour has it i'm not the first one but i'm your number one when i got a will now i got a way now

i'm your brave one
i'll be brave

i'm your hope, yield & caution
i'm your brave one
i'll be brave
