

Kim Mitchell, The Crossroads

if you come back to town i'll be standing at the crossroads of hell and heaven of pain and pleasure
if you come back to town
i'll be standing
like a national treasure
and i'll have nothing on but a glow... i'm liable to fall in love with you
i'm liable to fall in love with you
i'm liable to fall in love i'm liable to fall in love with you again if you come to town
i'll be standing at the crossroads of fact and fiction reality and fantasy
if you come back to town
i'll be standing
like a national treasure
and i'll have nothing on but a glow...
i'm liable to fall in love with you
i'm liable to fall in love with you
i'm liable to fall in love
i'm liable to fall in love with you again
and i'd be the noisiest-one-man-travelling-show at the crossroads at the crossroads hell and heaven pain and pleasure i'll be at the crossroads at the crossroads reality and fantasy