

Kim Richey, I'm Alright

After all was said and done
There was nothing left to do
The hardest mile I ever walked
Was the one I walked away from you
So maybe Im a little ragged around the edges
Ive been keeping a little more to myself these days
But Im alright
Sacked down but Im still standing
Yeah Im alright
Little banged up from the fall
But Im alright
Still shaky from the landing
Yeah Im alright after all
You know its really not that bad
No matter how bad it might feel
Cause there aint nothin time wont fix
And this aint nothin that some time wont heal
So maybe Ive been walking a little wounded
I move a little bit slower now but thats okay cause
Im alright
Sacked down but Im standing
Yeah Im alright
Little banged up from the fall
But Im alright
Still shaky from the landing
Yeah Im alright after all
And every now and then I think about you
Oh every now and then I cross the line
Im alright
Sacked down but Im still standing
Yeah Im alright
Little banged up from the fall
But Im alright
Still shaky from the landing
Yeah Im alright after all
