

Kim Sozzi, Four Eyes

Was it my body
Was it my manner
Was it my hair
Or was it my eyes

Was I too skinny?
I know I'm not pretty
Was it because you thought that I was shy

If you ask me to beg, I would beg
If you ask me to pray, I would pray

But never before did you notice my passion
But never before did you notice me cry
as you passed me by
But you noticed my glasses
And all four all four of my eyes

Saw you at a party
why did you ignore me
I guess you just had too much on your mind
Do you ever miss me
Do you ever feel sorry
Cause boy you just ran out of time

I don't care if you beg, you can beg
I don't care if you pray, you can pray all day

But never before did you notice my passion
But never before did you notice me cry
as you passed me by
But you noticed my glasses
And all four all four of my eyes

But Life Goes On
But Life Goes On
But Life Goes On
But Life Goes On

But Life Goes On
But Life Goes On
But Life Goes On

But you noticed my glasses
And all four all four of my eyes

Now I'm somebody
Got my own money
And you thought you'd do better than me
