

Kim Sozzi, How Did You Know

I'm in a spin
I'm giving in
I'm living in a daydream.
When I saw you your smile shone through and touched me like a sunbeam.
I'm inside out
I'm crazy about the way u make my 3 feel
I'm head over heels
I'm fallin' more each day

How did you know I've been waiting to touch you and tell you how I feel?
I'm walking on clouds
I'm spellbound about you
I can't believe you're real.

How did you know I've been thinking about you and dreaming of your kiss?
How did you know?
How did you know?

I'm in a spin, I'm giving in.
I'm living in a daydream when I saw you, your smile shone through and touched me like a sunbeam
I'm inside out.
I'm crazy about the way you make my heart feel.
I'm head over heels.
I'm falling more each day...

How did you know
I've been waiting to touch you and tell you how I feel?
I'm walking on clouds,
I'm spellbound about you,
I can't believe you're real.

How did you know I've been thinking about you, and dreaming of your kiss?
How did you know?
How did you know?
