

Kim Stockwood, You Won't Remember This

You Won't Remember This

I'm suddenly so irresistible

You act like I'm the one you love the most

When you're like this

You wrap your arms around my neck

I drive you home so you won't wreck

Chorus

You won't remember this

You won't remember this

You won't remember this tomorrow

We passionately kiss but

You won't remember this

You won't remember this tomorrow

You're losing all your inhibitions

(Hope you don't lose your lunch)

I know when you're in this condition

I shouldn't believe too much

Cause when the party's over

All you'll feel is a hangover

Chorus

We passionately kiss but

You won't remember this

You won't remember this tomorrow
