

Kim Wilde, Can You Hear It?

Written by Ricky & Marty Wilde

Feel it in the rushing wind

Brushing up against your mind

Look for a way to go

Head for the border sign

You could be gone

You could be far away

Soon you must fly free

And yes

Somehow you'll find what you've been missing

There was more to life

Than visions we had dreamed about

Can you hear it calling you?

Can you?

Can you hear it calling you?

Can you hear it coming through to you?

When you hear it calling you

It's your freedom

If you are on your own

If you have been betrayed

Stand by the truth you love

Don't let it get mislaid

You're not alone

And nothing can hold you down

Soon you will be free

And yes

Somehow you'll find what you've been missing

There was more to life

Than anything you dreamed about

Can you hear it calling you?

Can you?

Can you hear it calling you?

Can you hear it coming through to you?

When you hear it calling you

It's your freedom
