

Kim Wilde, I've Got So Much Love

Written by Ricky, Kim & Marty Wilde

I got this fever that burns in my head

And I don't want to move out of this bed

My heart is speeding away like a fast freight train

It's heading your way

It's racing like a river that's gone out of control

And reaches out for something completely unknown

It's eating through the senses and breathes in my soul

Oh this feeling just got to let it go

I got so much love

Do you feel the same

I got so much love

Do you feel the same

We'll how can I begin to

Hide the feelings that I'm into - for you

I got so much love inside

I got this feeling for you

But now the cure is about to begin

I feel your fingers all over my skin

And then the fire of kiss

What a thrill

So sweet so sweet

I don't
