

Kimya Dawson, I Miss You

I was always strong as long as we were a team
I crawled into somebody's heart who meant the world to me love made me strong enough to be alone and set me free but with my friends friends to the end is where I wanna be with my friends friends to the end is where I wanna be

I don't need to
but I want to sing with you
'cause I miss you
I don't need to
but I want to sing with you
'cause I miss you
