

King Crimson, Drop In

Why don't you just drop in
And love the life of sin
And squirm inside your cage
You are a prisoner of your rage

Why don't you just drop in
And play the game to win
The rules you pick and choose
The odds are stacked for you to loose

Why don't you just drop in
And let the game begin
You'll wish you'd learn to play
And live to die another day
