

King Crimson, Potato Pie

Someday you're gonna wake up singing someday you're gonna wake up tired it makes you feel like a horseshoe in a swimming pool
cause you know you don't belong

I move left
you move right
I'm like a blind man on a motorbike you say potato
but I say pie
tell me why

Someday you'll be sorry someday sad
someday you might even wake up just a little bit mad
maybe tommorrow
might be tonight
but in the meantime.
I was hoping you might solve this puzzle of mine someday
