

King Diamond, Moving On

[Diamond / Diamond]

[Acoustic Intro : Mike]

Oh You gotta move on now
I can see I can feel The tears in your eyes
The tears that you cry you gotta move on now
Let me wipe those tears from your eyes

If I could only take his place On the other side
I can see I can feel The tears in his eyes
The tears that he cries
We need each other
In the darkest of night Hes all I have
Solo : Andy

Time is running out To find another soul
Time is running out To find another soul

You gotta move on now, You gotta move on now
And find another house before the dawn is coming in
