King's X, Honesty

I don't know where to begin Cause I can't tell the shape I'm in It feels my face is to the wind But I can't tell the shape I'm in Honesty can kill Honesty can heal Honesty

I take my stay and then I go But I can't tell so I don't know

If you are high I must be low But I can't tell so I don't know Honesty from me Honesty be free Honesty

Honesty Honesty Honesty
